

Parent Notice

It is a legal requirement that families complete new enrolment forms for children each year. To be enable the centre to know how many vacancies we have available for new families, could current parents/carers please complete the enrolment & booking forms for 2010, & return them by Friday, 13th November. (This is also for siblings commencing per in 2010.) If forms are not returned by that date, I will assume that the place for your child/ren will not be required for 2010, & will become vacant.

Thankyou,
Jayne